

Did you get anyone else involved in your clean up? (ex: your kids, your friends, some strangers you met on trail who asked about it)

What items did you see the most?

Has this challenge inspired you to make any changes in your life or in your community? (ex: having a designated "catch" bag for your garbage when on trail, organizing a trail clean up day in your community, getting trash bins set up at problematic trail heads, etc)